

NEWSLETTER Spring Issue 2 Friday 1.2.2019

Have a look and post a comment!

We also launched our redesign competition of the school's statues this week. I have already seen some imaginative design entries and look forward to seeing even more ethos themed ideas!

Other upcoming developments include our Parent Coffee Morning – details below, new laptops, library room development and pending learning kitchen installation – hopefully Easter. In our staff development session on Wednesday, we started to develop our ideas for the Joint Malvern Way and Little Green 70th Celebration, building on this theme with a focus on outdoor and environmental learning. I look forward to sharing further details as the staff teams from both schools work together. This brings me to a final thought on ethos shared by a Year 6 child: Ethos: Everyone Together Helps Our School! Thank you all for your ongoing support.

PARENT COFFEE MORNING

Debbie Greenfield our Family Support Worker, will be holding a weekly drop in/coffee morning for parents/carers, on Tuesday mornings from 8.45am - 10.30am. Provisionally, until Tuesday 12th February.

Unfortunately, children do not come with a manual and Debbie does not have all the solutions but if you have a worry about your child's learning or behaviour then maybe through talking to Debbie or other parents in a relaxed and supportive environment you can find solutions or try other strategies!

Please speak to Mrs Boddy if you would like any more information. The coffee morning will be held in our Dining room at Little Green. We will look forward to seeing you there.

Thank you to FOLG and everyone that supports FOLG. Your hard work has paid for our new laptops. Speaking of which, FOLG Comedy Night is coming soon... but only if we sell enough tickets!

Upcoming Events:

- 7th Feb: Whole of Yr. 4 Athletics event at Rickmansworth School
- 8th Feb: FOLG Comedy Event
- 18th 22nd Feb: Half Term
